VODKA

- Chase Potato Vodka 4.50
Chase Vodka is the first and only British Potato vodka, and in March 2010, was named "Worlds Best Vodka". It is beautifully crafted and has a naturally sweet and creamy taste. The Chase distillery is on a farm in Herefordshire, a region that boasts some of the richest farmland in the world, it's here that they grow King Edward & Lady Claire potatoes for their distillery, they also grow organic cider apples used to make Williams Gin. It's this single-estate approach that makes Chase Vodka and Gin different and unique.
- Chase Marmalade Vodka 4.90
Chase have produced the first marmalade vodka on the market. It won Gold Medal at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition 2011. To make it, Chase vodka is marinated with Seville orange marmalade in copper pot stills before being distilled for a fourth time, with the vapours passing through fresh orange peel, to create this complicated and totally natural orange experience. Perfect over ice or tonic.
- Sipsmith Barley Vodka 4.50
Sipsmith Barley Vodka is distilled from English barley spirit and cut from the very top of the 'heart' run. The result is a genuinely handmade spirit which is deliciously smooth and buttery with an extraordinarily soft mouth feel.
- Absolut Vodka 3.30
First launched in New York in 1979, it soon became the talk of the town, the US and eventually the world. Made exclusively from natural ingredients and unlike some vodkas, contains no added sugar. In fact, Absolut is as clean as vodka can be. Main ingredients are water from a deep well in Ahus, Sweden and winter wheat. Winter wheat differs from other crops in that it is sown in fall and harvested the next one. Days in between it grows under Swedish snow.
- Grey Goose Vodka 4.80

Unveiling the best kept secret of British-Indian tradition, the juniper blends well with the Rngpur, in that it combines and almost gets lost under the velvet gloved lime avalanche.
- Gin Mare 4.70
Gin Mare is a new super premium gin inspired by botanicals grown in the Mediterranean. These are individually distilled in a custom made still and then hand blended to produce a gin truly unique and distinctive. Sun drenched citrus fruits, arebiquina, olives, thyme, basil and rosemary give Gin Mare genuine warmth and depth of character.
- William Chase Gin 4.90
